

CEMVO Scotland, in partnership with the Scottish Government, is running 2 seminars to raise the awareness of Justice of the Peace (JP) Appointments across Scotland and to encourage ethnic minority (EM) communities to apply. Applicants do not need to have a legal background as JPs and come from all walks of life. The second of these seminars is scheduled for:

Thursday, 13th October 2011

5:30pm - 8:00pm

Voluntary Action South Lanarkshire
Voluntary Sector Support Centre
155 Montrose Crescent
Hamilton
ML3 6LQ

The guest speakers will include current ethnic minority JPs and representatives from the Scottish Government Legal Services Team. The event is open to ethnic minority individuals, and will provide an opportunity to find out more about the JP recruitment, selection and appointment process. Attendees will also be able to ask questions and discuss the barriers that EM people may face when applying for such public appointments.

This is a great opportunity to get an insight into the whole JP selection process in an informal and inclusive environment. A finger buffet and light refreshments will be provided at 5.30pm.

For registration please contact: fiaz.khan@cemvoscotland.org.uk or Tel: 0141-248-4830 no later than 10 Oct 2011 [3:00pm]. Places are limited, register early to avoid disappointment!

Name:
Address:
Contact No:		Any special dietary requirements:	